Client Consent and Policy Statement

This document contains important information about the nature of your sessions and the therapeutic process. It is important that you read this very carefully and write down any questions you may have so we can discuss them.

Nature of Counseling

Your participation in therapy is completely voluntary and you can, if you choose, discontinue sessions at any time. The counseling relationship is a collaborative journey, and you are encouraged to take an active role in the planning of your journey.

Beginning counseling is a big step and it is important that you understand that there could be risks involved. Sometimes people try to avoid their problems and by talking about them, initially things may seem worse as you are dealing with them. Also, the growth that you make throughout this process may affect relationships with those in your life that are not growing along with you.

Treatment will be tailored to your needs. You may reserve the right to decline treatment against professional advice. You have the continuing right to an explanation of the procedure to be administered. Understand that there is no assurance that you will feel better.

The length of therapy is greatly determined by each situation. The goal in regards to the length of therapy is to resolve the issues that brought you in as thoroughly but quickly as possible.

Sessions are scheduled for 50 minutes. Initially, most appointments are scheduled every week or every other week. It is your right to discontinue treatment any time you feel it is in your best interest to do so. It is the therapist's ethical responsibility to end therapy when it is reasonably clear that you are no longer benefiting from treatment.

Cancellations _____ (Initial HERE)

Appointments are to be kept at the time they are scheduled. If an appointment must be cancelled, 24-hour notice is required. If cancellation is given with less than a 24-hour notice, a $30 fee will be charged. If no cancellation takes place and you miss your appointment, there will be a $50 charge.
Late cancellations and missed appointments are not covered under any insurance. In case of a serious emergency, inclement weather, or illness, if you notify us immediately, we will reschedule your appointment without additional charge.

Availability

Our general philosophy regarding emergencies is that clients are assumed to be self-responsible (functioning, and not in need of day-to-day supervision). As a private practice, we cannot assume responsibility for a client's day-to-day functioning as can institutions, nor can we be available for 24-hour per day crisis care. If you are anticipating a crisis situation, you must discuss any expectations you have with us and agree to develop and follow a written step-by-step crisis plan. If the need for crisis care arises unexpectedly, proceed to the nearest hospital or call 911. In the event that your therapist is out of town or unavailable, they will make every effort to let you know in advance and provide you with an alternative counselor to see in their absence.

Confidentiality

Confidentiality is vital to the therapeutic relationship. Your right to confidentiality will be protected, however, there are a few circumstances that limit this right

These include:

- (1) you, as a client, give Renewal, LLC, permission to release your records to a third party specified by you. In this situation, you will sign a release of information form before anything will be shared,
- (2) law mandates reporting if you present a danger to yourself or imminent danger to others,
- (3) law also mandates reporting if there is evidence to believe that abuse or neglect of a child or vulnerable adult is occurring,
- (4) instances where the court or government subpoena records,
- (5) information will be shared if you choose to involve insurance providers.

**Due to the confidential nature of the therapeutic relationship, we do not engage in online social networking with current or previous clients (including but not limited to Facebook, LinkedIn, Instagram or Twitter).*

Disagreements

If a situation comes up during therapeutic process where you are uncomfortable in any way, please notify us immediately so that it can be discussed at that time. It is essential to have trust in this relationship. Do not worry about offending us in any way. We are here to help you and any negative thoughts or feelings would be counter-productive to your sessions.

Payment

Payment in cash, check, or Visa/Mastercard is expected in full at the time of service. There will be a $25 charge for each “non-sufficient funds” check returned and if this occurs more than two (2) times, payment will only be accepted in the form of cash or credit.

Agreement

I have read this information completely, understand what is said, and have discussed any questions that I might have with the counselor. I realize that this is a binding agreement and will be held to all standards mentioned above and by signing this, I agree with this document in its entirety.

HIPAA Email Consent

Email is a very popular and convenient way to communicate for a lot of people, so HIPAA (Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act) allows clients the option of communication with counselors as long as clients understand the risks.

When we send you an email, or you send us an email, the information that is sent is not encrypted. Renewal has taken the steps to attain HIPAA compliant email; however, at this time, we do not use encryption. This means a third party may be able to access the information and read it since it is transmitted over the Internet. In addition, once the email is received by you, someone may be able to access your email account and read it.

Email is not appropriate for urgent or emergency situations. Email should be utilized to communicate basic information and should be concise. It is best to avoid communicating sensitive information; such as credit card numbers.

It is Renewal's policy to read all emails and if necessary, print it and add to you file. After that the email is deleted. Renewal will not forward your emails outside of our own network of counselors. We are not liable for breaches of confidentiality caused by unencrypted email.

Option 1 – Allow Unencrypted Email

- Check here if you would like email appointment reminders.

I understand the risks of transmitting my protected health information by unencrypted means. I understand that I am not required to sign this agreement in order to receive treatment. I also understand that I may terminate this authorization at any time. I agree to notify Renewal if there is a change in my email address.
